ISBCC VISITOR ETIQUETTES

- Dress Code: We request that all visitors dress modestly and respect the sanctity of the prayer hall. Group leaders should ensure that both males and females dress modestly with loose, long pants or long skirts. Women should cover arms with long sleeves. Entry into the prayer hall will require women to cover their hair. (Please bring a scarf. If needed, scarves are available on-site for ISBCC guests).
- All children must be supervised by adults during their visit.
- Prayer service: If the visit coincides with the prayer services, visitors may sit and observe if they wish. We ask that visitors sit quietly and turn off their cell phones so as not to disturb the service. The tour guide will address any questions or comments after the service.
- Video and Audio Recording is not permitted without prior written authorization from MAS Boston.

WAIVER

We understand and agree to abide by the etiquettes outlined above. We understand and accept that ISBCC may record tours for training purposes or quality assurance.
